Class of 2017

College Report Class of 2017

I am proud to be associated with the Class of 2017. This class is talented, intelligent, and generous. The Class of 2017 counts amongst its ranks terrific athletes and scholars. This is an extraordinary class. I hope that we have made a sometimes difficult college selection process easier and more effective for the families in the Class of 2017. Group and individual meetings, emails, and phone calls have kept the Guidance Office busier than ever this year, just the way it is supposed to be.

I have listed some of the data from the Class of 2017 below.

College Admission Data

Graduates of the Class of 2017: 155 students

97% will attend four-year colleges

2% will attend two-year colleges

1% will attend the military

College Admission Information:

Guidance Office Highlights

MEETINGS

The College Counselor conducted seven evening meetings for students and parents.

Ninth Grade College Planning Meeting to assist 9th graders and parents with understanding the college selection process with guest speaker Jessie Yeager from Denison University. November 30, 2016.

Tenth Grade College Planning Meeting to assist students and parents in positioning themselves for college admissions and testing with guest speaker Keith Gehres from Ohio State University. September 14, 2016.

Junior College Planning Series of two meetings to provide detailed information about the student and college profile and how to find college matches. For the first time at St. Charles we made the second meeting into a “College Planning Conference”. Families were given options to attend varying sessions on topics such as selective admissions, ACT vs. SAT, regional campuses and community colleges, Military options, Effective College Visits, and more. We were joined at these meetings by wonderful presenters which included: Susan Schaurer, Director of Admissions at Ohio State, Gabriel Brown, Associate Director of Admissions at Notre Dame, Ellen Turner, Assistant Director of Admissions at Kenyon College, Kyle Kurfurst, Assistant Director of University of Chicago, and our own David Breckenridge to discuss military opportunities amongst many others. November 16th, 2016 and March 15th, 2017.

Senior College Planning Meeting to assist seniors with the application process. August 31st, 2016

Senior Scholarship and Financial Aid Meeting to assist senior families with paying for college. September 28, 2016.

College Credit Plus Meeting to explain the College Credit Plus Program to students and build awareness of it. We joined a consortium to present this information at Ohio State this year. November 29, 2016.
